ORDER DISMISSING CASE

The Court, having reviewed the record in the above–captioned case, and being duly advised, finds that the debtor failed to amend Schedule J, and the case should be dismissed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the above–captioned bankruptcy case is DISMISSED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the trustee shall be, and hereby is, discharged and relieved of his/her trust.

To reinstate a case which has not been closed, a Motion for Relief from Judgment or Order pursuant to Fed.R.Bankr.P. 9024 must be filed within thirty (30) days from the case's dismissal date. If the case was dismissed because of the failure to pay a filing fee or an installment, that fee or any missed installment must be paid with the motion. Documents missing at the time the case was dismissed must also be filed with the motion, or the motion will be denied.

To reopen a closed case, a Motion to Reopen must be filed, and the reopening fee must be paid as set forth in the fee schedule found at http://www.insb.uscourts.gov/WebForms/FeeSchedule.pdf. A Motion for Relief from Judgment or Order pursuant to Fed.R.Bankr.P. 9024 must also be filed. In addition to the reopening fee, you must pay any unpaid portion of the original filing fee, or if the Court permitted payment of the original fee in installments, any missed installment fee payments. The Court has the right to deny the motion and may refund the fees. Documents missing at the time the case was dismissed must be filed with the Motion to Reopen, or the motion will be denied.
